

Invitation to tender for delivering a workshop of Speculative and Critical Design at EKA/ESTONIA

Dear Sirs

Invitation to Tender

The Estonian Academy of Arts (EKA) organises the 3rd Summer Academy for international and local students this year, and invites offers for the delivering of a workshop on topic of Speculative and Critical Design in EKA.

The participants will be introduced to the essential principles of future studies and will learn to identify signals, extrapolate implications and create future artefacts.

Workshop is delivered at least by at least two tutors in the field of Speculative Design.

The course details:

- group: 18 students (2nd and 3rd year BA students and MA students in Design, Architecture and related fields)
- preferred mode of supervising: co-teaching/supervising by 2 tutors
- amount: 40 academic hours (academic hour = 45 min)
- duration: 5 days in August 2019
- Language: English

Trainers have relevant training experience preferably in academic/international context. Desirable is Master Degree in the field.

LEARNING OUTCOMES. The student is able to:

- understand the basics of speculative critical design;
- use design methodologies for a positive impact within one's own community.

Cost – a maximum day rate up to 800 Euros per day. Please note that travel and accommodation expenses will be paid by EKA (economy class travel).

Selection Criteria:

- Track record - Experience of delivering training in Speculative Design in academic/international context where the audience have been students of Design/Architecture (50%)
- Cost (30%)
- Qualification (20%)

It is the responsibility of the tenderers to ensure that offers are received by June 5, 2019 to e-mail Kristiina.krabi@artun.ee

Tenders received after this time shall not be considered.

“EKA Summer Academy of Art, Design and Architecture – Possible Futures” is funded by the European Regional Development Fund.
